Office over Police Court room.
Prompt attention to business.

FOR CONGRESS.

We are authorized to announce HARVEY HELM, of Lincoln county, as a candidate to represent the Eighth Congressional District of Kentucky in Congress to succeed Hon G G Gilbert, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Of local interest.

The state U D C convention will be held at the Confederate Home, Pewee Valley, Oct 3 and 4.

The store of H Patterson will be closed Saturday Sept 29 until 6 o'clock p m account Jewish Holiday.

Mrs Josephine Boner will have her millinery opening Saturday September 29. All the ladies are invited to attend.

W A Beazley sold, Monday, five shares of stock in the Crab Orchard Bank to Curtis Gover for $115 a share.

T B Walker brought W H Wherritt a kershaw which weighed 44 pounds. It was grown on Mr Walker's farm near town.

The Ladies of the Baptist Aid Society will give an exchange Nov 28th the day before Thanksgiving. Particulars later.

Protracted meeting will begin at Pleasant Grove church Thursday, September 27, by Rev Carpenter, at 7:30. Everybody is cordially invited.

The State W C T U Convention will convene at Nicholasville the 28th. The delegates from this Union are Mrs Dr Burnett and Mrs Fanny Farra. Alternate, Miss Lizzie Brown.

Important K P Meeting.

A very important meeting of the Knights of Pythias will be held tomorrow (Friday) night, and every member is urged to be present.

Another Farm Sold.

Hughes & Swinebroad sold for Wm. B Burton his farm of 143 acres on Buckeye pike, three miles from town, to T L Yantis of this County, and Z T Rice, of Richmond at $48 00 per acre, cash. Mr Burton having sold his farm will now likely buy handsome city property and the public can "guess."

Nicholasville Goes Dry.

Nicholasville, which is a fourth class town, went dry in the election held there Thursday by a majority of eighteen. Under the new law, all counties having a city as large as the fourth class, the city is considered the unit and the county outside of the city is considered a unit. Jessamine county outside of Nicholasville is already dry.

Mule Colt Day.

Monday was mule colt day, and the streets were filled with the long eared, high-priced animals. There were several buyers, and all the best ones sold like hot cakes at from $65 to $110. The thinner ones were most all sold but did not go as rapidly as the heavier ones. The demand for mule colts continues to increase, in fact they are in almost as great demand as good horses.

Day of Atonement.

Next Saturday is the Day of Atonement among the Jews, and is appropriately observed by them. Their places of business are closed, and a number of solemn ceremonies are observed, among them being that of fasting and the forgiving of all ill-feelings they may have against fellow men. The Jewish name for the day is Yom Kippur.

Opening at Danville.

Miss Minnie Eastham has selected next Saturday as time for opening of her stock of swell millinery, and a large crowd from neighboring towns will be there to get a look at the latest designs just received from New York, were they were bought in person by Miss Eastham. She has wide experience, and the ladies have learned to go to her for the handsomest and latest styles.

Is A Sure Winner.

Mr George B Robinson, of this county, won second premium on his fine jack, Senator McCreary, in a ring of eight contestants, at the Blue Grass Fair last week. Senator McCreary is by Billy Breckinridge, dam by Jo Blackburn. Now isn't it enough to make him a winner anywhere? Mr Robinson is not only a successful breeder of jack stock, but has raised some fine horses, notable the great Vesta Dare, the mare which attracted attention in many states and which brought a great price.

A Fine Meeting.

The meeting in progress at the Christian church is attended by large congregations at both afternoon and evening services, and great interest is being awakened among both church members and those who have never united. The sermons by Rev John E Pounds, of Cleveland, show careful study and are reaching his hearers in a manner which will result in much good. Mr Pounds is a gentleman of learning and fine mental ability, and his arguments are convincing and clear. The singing of the choir, under direction of Miss Ida Mae Hanna, of Cincinnati, is far above the average, while her solos are grand. She has a remarkably sweet voice, full, clear and sympathetic, and shows the careful training it has had. Miss Hanna is a most charming young lady, and her sweet notes will linger long in the ears of the Lancaster people. Services are held at 2:30 and 7:30 p m except on Monday and Saturday. Sunday services 10:45 a m, and 7:30 p m. Everybody cordially invited.

Store Closed.

On account of holiday, our store will be closed next Saturday.
Joseph Mercantile Co.

The circus will pitch its canvas on the Haselden lot, on Richmond street.

As the Rev Mr Brown will be away there will be no services at the Presbyterian church Sunday.

A Good Price.

Mr T O Hill tells The Record that six colts by his jack were sold Monday for $610. This is a remarkably good average.

Farm Sold.

Hughes & Swinebroad, real estate agents, sold to John Wags the Walden farm on the Danville pike consisting of 216 acres at $73 00 per acre.

Enters Newspaper Work.

Mr Homer Baughman, a Danville lawyer, has purchased a half interest in the Danville News, and will devote a portion of his time to the work. He is a bright young man, and will wield a ready quill.

Jellico Wrecked.

The little city of Jellico was almost completely destroyed, seven persons were killed and many injured by the explosion of a carload of dynamite. The several Lancaster people residing there escaped uninjured, but lost some property.

Hustling Young Firm.

Messrs Robt and Shirley Elkin have bought the business of their father, and will conduct an up-to-the-minute meat market, handling the very best fresh and cured meats, ice, etc. These young men are hustlers, and will make a success.

Court Day.

A large crowd attended county court Monday and business was very good. Capt A M Bourne, the auctioneer, reports mule colts at $65 to $110, aged mules $150 to $225, plug horses $20 to $23, few cattle on market sold at good prices but not much demand. There was absolutely no drunkenness or disorder of any character.

Here's The Way To Talk.

J R Mount, who spent last week in several Kentucky counties, told The Record, upon his return, that he did not see any corn near so tall, cattle so fat, grass as green, men so handsome or women as pretty as they are right here in Garrard. If everyone will stand up for Garrard in this way, the many great advantages of the county will soon be thoroughly known to outsiders.

Bank Upheld.

Judge Barker writing, the court of appeals last week reversed Garrard Circuit Court in case of National Bank of Lancaster against M W Johnson's administrator. The appellee sought to require the bank to pay over a deposit of Johnson amounting to $12,000, including money which had been attached in hands of the bank. The court here sustained the bank in refusing to pay over the attached money.

State Development Convention.

The fifth State Development Convention will be held in Winchester, October 10, 11, 12 and the prospects are that it will be a great meeting. That hustling city is making extensive arrangements for entertainment of the delegates, and much good is expected to be derived from the meeting. County Judge Ford has appointed the following to represent Garrard: W S Walker, I M Dunn, J P Bourne, Forest Stapp, and Judge A D Ford. Mayor John M Duncan appointed the following as representatives from Lancaster: Louis Landram, John M Farra, J W Elmore, H T Logan and John E Stormes. It is the intention of those appointed to attend the meeting.

Held Without Bail.

Late Wednesday night, officers Bearley and Herron arrested Curt East, Jones Simpson and John Simpson on the charge of having been implicated in the death of Nath Taylor and Bud Casey, whose bodies were burned in the house destroyed on the previous Sunday night. The men were charged with murder, and the examining trial was held last Friday before Judge Armstrong. The Commonwealth was represented by County attorney Joe E Robinson, assisted by Jas I Hamilton, while J M Bothwell represented the defendants. At conclusion of the proof for Commonwealth, the defense decided to introduce no proof and ask for dismissal, but the court held there was sufficient reason for holding them to await action of the next grand jury, and they were sent back to the jail without bail. A great many witnesses were introduced, the trial occupying the entire day, and, as the defendants did not offer their side, we deem it unfair to give only one side of the case, so will not attempt to go into details.

To Tax-Payers.

Your taxes are due, so please call and settle, as the penalty will be added Nov 1. C A Arnold, Sheriff, Garrard Co.

Republican Mass Convention.

A mass convention of the Republican of Garrard county will be held at the Court House in Lancaster on SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1906 at 1:30 o'clock p m for the purpose of selecting delegates to the convention to be held at Lawrenceburg, Kentucky, on October 4, to nominate a candidate for congress.

Mr. Paul M. Moore editor of the Earlington Bee, has announced as a candidate for nomination for Congress on the republican ticket in his district.
Able, fearless, conscientious, and a typical gentleman, Mr. Moore would make a record in Congress of which all parties would be justly proud. All right-thinking people long for the day when such clean men, as Mr. Moore, will be placed in charge of affairs in both state and national affairs. Has ten the day!

A great debate took place in a Kentucky church, recently, the subject being, "Resolved—That Cain was the son of Adam." It is remarkable how much time is wasted by ministers discussing such mouse-tracks when they should be striving to save souls. It makes little difference to the hustling world whether Cain was the son of Adam, and few people give Adam about such minor questions.

Surprises come when not expected of course. The girl in Terre Haute that committed suicide because her mother would not let her wash the dishes created a greater surprise than if she had sought a divorce because her husband loved her too well.

A Philadelphia girl who discovered she could not become an actress went to cooking. If the hundreds of others who are proving a failure before the footlights will only see the truth in this way, the perplexing cook question will be solved.

An Alabama woman sued for divorce because her husband woke up in the night and laughed. Conclusive evidence was that he knew something he would not tell her, and she should be given the requested papers and plenty of alimony.

A Chicago hotel refused to permit
Lillian Russell to keep her dog inside its walls, and the daughter of William Jennings Bryan was not allowed to keep her dog in a Virginia school.
Such treatment was a dog gone shame.

Now that Louisville and Lexington have ceased burdening the public with claims as to which would have the biggest fair, the people will enter into their closets and give thanks for the relief.

Theatrical men are complaining of the shortage of chorus girls. As the pretty chorus girls are about all worth seeing in the shows these days, it looks as if the theatrical business is in danger.

An exchange wants to know what the women do with all the things they buy at the dry goods stores, and the Louisville Herald answers correctly by saying they take them back and have them exchanged.

An Ohio lawyer charged a young lady, whose guardian he was, $5 for selecting a hat for her. According to the work and worry in that job, he would charge $5.50 for winding up the entire estate.

An English physician declares that he has discovered a powder which will cure ill temper. If it proves successful every married man in the land will order a barrel of the invention.

A man in Cincinnati has not slept for ten years. He is evidently trying to figure how to collect subscriptions due country newspapers.

Physicians that after dinner speaking is dangerous to the health. We presume they mean the health of the listeners.

Straw hats and peekaboo waists are being laid away for next summer.

Some Pumpkins

An Estill county man raised a pumpkin that he claims weighs one hundred and eighteen pounds. The Winchester Democrat estimates that it will make two thousand boarding house pies.

A Good Ruling

An Ohio Judge has established a new rule regarding divorce cases, in that no trial will be heard until six months after the petitions are filed.
This is done to give the contracting parties time to reconsider their action and make up. Many regret the step as soon as taken.

Has It Occurred To You

that it is really not coal but heat that you are buying? Yet in much common coal you pay for slate, clinkers and various foreign matter, all weighing sixteen ounces to the pound. Our "Banner" Coal is all heat. It burns all up. It is clean, hot and makes an easy regulated dependable fire. Ask us for "Banner Coal" nobody else can supply it.

THE JOHN H SPARKS SHOW

will Exhibit at Lancaster Friday Sept 28th afternoon and night.

The managers of the John H Sparks Show claim that they have the highest class, cleanest and best exhibition of the kind traveling. Twenty years experience, with ample capital and intelligent management have combined to produce this result. That their claims are well founded seem to be proven by the following extracts from late news papers:

"The Mount Vernon Ohio" "Daily Banner" says: "The John H Sparks Show exhibited here Wednesday, and many people were turned away, the big tents being packed at each performance. This was no doubt owing to the popularity which this show has achieved here on previous visits. They more than sustained their reputation, as the show is even better than ever. It has been considerably enlarged, with many new acts and features, and all were excellent. Mr. Sparks will have to enlarge his seating capacity if he comes to this city again."

"The Barnesville" "Enterprise" says: "Great crowds hugely enjoyed the two performances given by the Sparks Show last Monday. The show has had quite a growth since that it is the best exhibition of the kind that ever to Barnesville."

"The Hillsboro, Ohio" "News-Herald," says: "To say that the show was up to the usual Sparks a standard would alone be a strong recommendation, but it was really better than ever before. They have a 'square deal' reputation here, and the crowds that tested the capacity of the tents is the best possible evidence that the people of this vicinity know a good thing when they see it."

If more were necessary, we have hundreds in a similar strain from every section of the United States.
